Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine
GENERAL PRACTICE TRAINING PROGRAM

MEDICAL STUDENT → INTERN → ACRRM REGISTRAR → GENERAL PRACTITIONER

MBBS or Equivalent

4-6 Years

WHERE:
- University Medical School

Post Graduate Year 1

12 Months

WHERE:
Accredited Hospital

REQUIREMENTS:
Ideally including terms from the following:
- General Medicine
- Obstetrics & Gynaecology
- Anaesthetics
- General Surgery
- Paediatrics
- Emergency Medicine
- PGPPP

Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) General Practitioner

Enrol with ACRRM and GPET anytime after PGY 1

Core Clinical Training (CCT)

12 Months

WHERE:
ACRRM Accredited Hospital

REQUIREMENTS:
At completion of CCT must have completed terms in:
- General Medicine
- Obstetrics & Gynaecology
- Anaesthetics
- General Surgery
- Paediatrics
- Emergency Medicine

Primary Rural and Remote Training Training (PRRT)

24 Months

WHERE:
Any of the following:
- Rural Hospital
- Aboriginal Medical Service
- Rural General Practice
- RFDS

REQUIREMENTS:
- Rotations through ACRRM accredited practices and posts. See www.rrmeo.com then search Education Inventory

Advanced Specialised Training (AST)

12 Months

WHERE:
Dependent on specialty area

REQUIREMENTS:
Train in one of the following areas:
- Anaesthetics
- Obstetrics & Gynaecology
- Surgery
- Population Health
- Remote Medicine
- Emergency Medicine
- Aboriginal Health
- Adult Internal Medicine
- Mental Health
- Paediatrics

AST and PRRT may be done in any order or concurrently

Complete four online education modules.
Complete at least two emergency medicine courses.

Complete assessment progressively: MCQ, mini Clinical Evaluation Exercise (miniCEX), Multi Source Feedback (MSF), Structured Assessment using Multiple Patient Scenarios (StAMPS), Procedural Skills Logbook

FACRRM Fellowship Australian College Rural and Remote Medicine

PDP ACRRM's Professional Development Program

ONGOING

WHERE:
- Rural/Hospital
- General Practice
- Humanitarian medicine
- Expedition medicine
- Foreign aid
- Retrieval medicine
- Military medicine
- Fly in fly out locums

Ongoing participation with ACRRM's PDP for:
- Recognition as General Practitioner with Medicare
- Maintenance of Procedural Skills and Emergency Medicine
- Clinical Privileging

Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) Specialist Registration General Practitioner